'RURAL' A Handbook for Small Landholders

Comment	Name
...the book we should have had X years ago...	Numerous
...devoured your book yesterday evening and today. I wish we had it when we were back at the prebuild stage as there are so many useful tips...	Elizabeth Kidney (Baldivis WA)
...very user friendly and informative...	Dudley Scott (Scott Print WA)
...I would be tempted myself to buy a large property and would feel rather well informed on what it takes and how to go about it after reading your guide. I am of a same opinion - it's better to learn from mistakes of others than your own...	Gabriela Bruckner (Scott Print WA)
...This is definitely the book you need to answer all those questions you were afraid to ask and all those you hadn't even thought about. Had I read this book prior to moving to a 5 acre block in Stoneville in 2006, things would have turned out much differently for me and life would have been a whole lot easier...	Bruce Zilm (Mandurah WA)
A well presented and easy to read book that covers numerous topics. A must read book for not only potential landowners but those currently living on acreage. An excellent reference book on all things rural	Colin Xanthis (Wellard WA)
...It's exactly what we need at this point, and will be very useful over the next few years as we get our property set up the way we want. I haven't read the whole book yet as I have to drag it out of my husband's hands to get a look in...	Leanne Christie (Aldinga Beach SA)
...I bought your book the other day on a whim while I was purchasing some gas. We have only been living rural for 8 weeks, we have been loving it so far. Your book is full of so much useful information and it is presented in such a way to add in some aussie humour. I loved it, I could hardly put it down. Thank you so much. I have a feeling we will be referring back to your book and some of the great ideas inside for a long while yet...	Renee T (Serpentine WA)
...I love it and will continue to browse it whenever I have a problem or just need some information -- or inspiration. Excellently researched, beautifully presented - both the information and the pictures. I agree with all the feedback you've received so far. ...	Lawrie Carr (Anketell WA)
